

Crisis – Single point of access

Facebook	Twitter	Image
Those in mental distress can now contact their local TEWV crisis service using the new single point of access telephone number 0300 0200317. This will replace individual contact numbers for crisis services in County Durham, Darlington, Teesside and North Yorkshire and York. People with learning disabilities and/or autism can also contact crisis services using this number. Advice and information which may be helpful in a mental health emergency is also available here: www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice.	Those in mental distress, including those with a learning disability and/or autism, can now contact their local @TEWV crisis service on Tel. 0300 0200317. Visit www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice for advice on what to do in a mental health emergency	 The image shows a promotional graphic for the TEWV crisis service. It features a bright orange telephone handset against a teal background. Text on the graphic includes: 'Call on us... In a mental health emergency.', 'Our new, all age, single point of access number is making it quicker and easier to contact your local crisis service. Tel. 0300 0200317', and 'Visit our website for advice on what to do in a mental health emergency: www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice'. The NHS logo and 'Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust' are also visible.
Whatever your age, if you are experiencing a mental health crisis you can call TEWV crisis services on single point of access telephone number 0300 0200317. The line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for those living in County Durham, Darlington, Teesside and North Yorkshire and York.	Whatever your age, if you're experiencing a mental health crisis call @TEWV crisis services on Tel. 0300 0200317. People with learning disabilities and/or autism can also use this number or you can visit www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice for advice on what to do in an emergency.	 The image shows a promotional graphic for the TEWV crisis service. It features a hand holding a yellow telephone handset against a light grey background. Text on the graphic includes: 'Call on us... In a mental health emergency.', 'Our new, all age, single point of access number is making it quicker and easier to contact your local crisis service. Tel. 0300 0200317', and 'Visit our website for advice on what to do in a mental health emergency: www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice'. The NHS logo and 'Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust' are also visible.

People with learning disabilities and/or autism can also contact crisis services using this number.

You also may find this advice and information on what to do in a mental health emergency helpful, www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice.

Children, adults and older people living in the local area can access TEWV crisis services by calling Tel. 0300 0200317. People with learning disabilities and/or autism can also contact crisis services using this number.

The line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Advice and information on what to do in a mental health emergency can be found here www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice.

Children, adults & older people in the area can access @TEWV crisis services on Tel. 0300 0200317. People with learning disabilities and/or autism can also use this number. Visit www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice for advice on what to do in a mental health emergency.

In a mental health emergency Tel. 0300 0200317 for TEWV crisis services. The line is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and will direct you to your local team. The number can be used by children, adults and older people as well as those with learning disabilities and/or autism.

Advice and information on what to do in a mental health emergency can be found here www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice.

In a mental health emergency Tel. 0300 0200317 for @TEWV crisis services. Open 24/7 the line can be used by children, adults, older people & those with learning disabilities and/or autism. Advice on what to do in a mental health emergency is here www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice

A promotional poster for the NHS Crisis Line. At the top right is the NHS logo with the text "NHS Tins, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust". Below this, the text "Call on us..." is written in blue, followed by "In a mental health emergency" in a smaller black font. The word "OPEN" is displayed in large, bold, yellow, 3D-style letters. At the bottom, it states "Crisis staff are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week", "Tel. 0300 0200317", and "or visit www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice for advice".

Call on us...
In a mental health emergency

OPEN

Crisis staff are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week
Tel. 0300 0200317
or visit www.tewv.nhs.uk/crisisadvice for advice